Re: Missy Ohe

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter on behalf of Missy Ohe. I have known Ms. Ohe for approximately six years and have found her to be honest, reliable, hard-working, knowledgeable and conscientious.

Ms. Ohe is a fantastic motivational speaker and her ability to work with both large and small groups is amazing. Over the years I have had the opportunity to attend large group settings with Ms. Ohe as the presenter. Her unique ability to engage the audience and unite people is astounding.

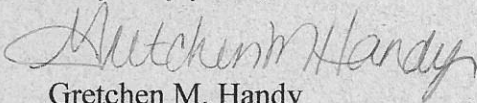

I have also attended numerous small groups that Ms. Ohe has facilitated. Since the beginning of this year I have been involved in a Mastermind Group in which we are reading and discussing John Maxwell material. Ms. Ohe has been instrumental in uniting our group and initiating conversation that allows the members of the group to assist one another in growing both personally and professionally.

I recently attended a networking meeting that Ms. Ohe was generous enough to arrange. The caliber of the business people that she brought together and the energy and enthusiasm Ms. Ohe was able to create among us was beyond my expectations.

I truly do not know if I can think of anyone who is more compassionate about what they do than Ms. Ohe. Not only is she more than willing, but she has the ability, to assist people in improving and growing their business or as an individual. She has amazing ideas and her love of bringing people together and building on their strengths is apparent in everything she does.

I trust that the information provided will be of assistance and I would be more than happy to provide further information, if requested.

Very truly yours,
